Biography

Fiona Quinn is the Business Manager at Noble Vrapí. Primarily based in the Albuquerque office, Ms. Quinn routinely works in all Noble Vrapí locations to ensure consistency in excellent customer service. Ms. Quinn is responsible for day-to-day firm operations as well as business development opportunities. She is proficient in Spanish.

With a Master's degree in Project Management and a Bachelor's degree in Accounting, Ms. Quinn brings over five years of operations management and organizational leadership to Noble Vrapí. In previous roles, Ms. Quinn managed an extensive R&D portfolio and coached non-profit organizations on maximizing their social justice impact. Having lived, worked, and studied in northern Argentina for 3 years, Ms. Quinn approaches business opportunities and client engagements with cultural sensitivity. Ms. Quinn describes herself as a fixer with a black belt in getting things done, and has been introduced by partners as the Queen of Efficiency.

Having lived as an immigrant in Argentina, Ms. Quinn feels passionately that the immigrant community should be honored, respected, and fully supported. Her experiences working with first generation immigrants as a Court Appointed Special Advocate opened Ms. Quinn's eyes to the many obstacles faced by immigrants in America. At Noble Vrapí, Ms. Quinn enjoys supporting the legal team as they work with clients to break immigration barriers and live without fear.

More About Fiona Quinn

Ms. Quinn plays classical piano and was briefly in a rockabilly band in Mexico City. She loves musicals and taking road trips to national parks with her dog Banana. Ms. Quinn is proud of turning her black thumb into a green thumb and is now the proud custodian of many thriving house plants. Her Spanish accent is thickly Argentinian, as are her futbol loyalties. Fun fact: Ms. Quinn wrote this bio from Labor and Delivery because when she makes a commitment to get something done, she follows through.
