Biography

Rebecca Cordova is a Legal Assistant in the firm's Business and Employment Department. She is based in the Albuquerque office. Ms. Cordova is fluent in Spanish.

Ms. Cordova was born and raised in Albuquerque, NM. Upon graduation from high school, she attended Bible College at Colorado Masters Commission in Denver, Colorado. During her time at Bible College, Ms. Cordova volunteered with the Denver Metro Kids program which provided food and summer activities to low income families. Ms. Cordova moved back to Albuquerque in 2009 and began her legal career. Ms. Cordova joined the firm in 2018 and has served the immigrant community since that time as a legal assistant.

Ms. Cordova's parents were born in Chihuahua, Mexico, and immigrated to the United States in the 1980s. Thus, Ms. Cordova understands the fear and struggles immigrants face upon arriving to the U.S. and living without status. Ms. Cordova aspires to help individuals attain their dream to remain in this country by providing assistance in their immigration process.
